THE MAYOR'S FIRST MARRIAGE.

Contrary to the practice of his predecessor, ex-Mayor Hall, who only occasionally officiated in the administration of the rites of holy matrimony, Mayer Havemeyer signalized the third day of his present Mayoralty by uniting a couple who pre-sented themselves at the Mayor's office desiring to enter the wedded state. It would really seem as if no warning was strong enough for some people.

I HAVE ENDEAVORED TO INDUCE CERTAIN managers of theatres to respect my property in the plays entitled "The Colleen Bawn," "The Octoroon," plays entitled. "The Colleen Bawn." "The Octoroon,"
"The Life of an Actress," "Bot," "The Streets of New York," "Arrah na Pogue," and others well known by them to be American Copyrights. As they are unwillingt to do so I find myself obliged to take legal steps to assert my rights.

There are some two or three hundred dramas of mine, English Copyrights, of which they have had the free use during the last thirty years. The public will, surely agree with me that the harvest managers have reaped on my pieces since "London Assurance" in 1841 to the present day might have prompted them to respect my property in those few American copyrights I possess.
